

I request that the FCC leave current law regarding no-call lists as they currently exist. As a Wisconsin citizen, I am stating that the Federal government should not expose me or other Wisconsin citizens to unwanted telemarketing simply because we have had contact with a business wanting to telemarket. The FCC needs to put consumers, not big telemarketers, first.